Comment: I think the proposal is very good with one exception.

Exception -- I strongly believe reducing the number of VE's has the potential for too much abuse by a very few individuals who could be more easily lead to breaking the rules by which we give exams. I remember the days of the "Conditional Class License" and the abuses that did occur with a single ham doing the exam. I doubt that your proposal would be that bad, but I do think the opportunity for misuse would be greatly increased.

I have been a VE ever since the VEC program was created. I have worked for the former Charlotte VEC, the ARRL VEC and WCARS VEC. The VE's with whom I have discussed this with are all in agreement with this point.

Thank you for your consideration to my views.

Respectfully submitted,
